

Form A4: application for cremation of pregnancy loss by a health authority or body (shared or individual cremation)

Cremation number:

Crematorium/cremation authority address:

Cremation authority registration number:

Time of cremation:

Date of cremation:

This is a statutory form, prescribed by the Cremation (Scotland) Regulations 2019. The information and questions contained in this form must not be changed.

This application form must be used to apply for:

- individual cremation of a pregnancy loss, or
- shared cremation of more than one pregnancy loss

where the loss occurred on or before the end of the 24th week gestation and the loss was for any reason (i.e. termination or miscarriage).

The application is made to the cremation authority which is to carry out the cremation. The cremation authority will need to examine the form to make sure that it contains all of the necessary information. Missing information or information that is not accurate may result in the cremation being delayed or refused. If you are unsure about any of the information that is required, or are not sure what any part of the form means, you should speak to staff at the crematorium where the cremation is to take place.

This application must be signed by the person authorised to make the application for cremation.

Each pregnancy loss must be identified by the hospital or clinic ID number.

Personal data

The information provided on this form is a legal requirement under the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016 and will be processed in line with data protection legislation. The data will be held by the cremation authority that is carrying out the cremation. It will be held securely, in confidence and processed solely for the purposes set out by or under the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016. It will not be shared with any third party other than an inspector of cremation, if requested. You have the right to know what data is held about you and you can, by contacting the cremation authority in writing, receive a copy of that data. The cremation authority is obliged to include in their privacy notice how the information will be held, for how long and how you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office.
