

MAKE YOUR HOME COSIER AND SAVE MONEY.

Hi, Doug the Draught Excluder here.
Did you know that if you own or rent your home, you may be able to get insulation, a new boiler or heating system for free to help you use less energy and save money on your fuel bills?

Or that you might be eligible for an interest free loan to fund improvements which could make your home more energy efficient?

It's all thanks to Home Energy Scotland. With the support of the Scottish Government, they provide clear, impartial and free advice to help make your home cheaper to heat.

So why not get in touch and find out what support is available to you?

CLEAR, IMPARTIAL ADVICE ON MAKING YOUR HOME CHEAPER TO HEAT.

With Home Energy Scotland, you can get free advice and could even get a new boiler, a new heating system or insulation for free. Making it easier for you to use less energy and save money on your fuel bills. It's well worth doing...

- Many homes in Scotland don't have insulation that's up to standard
- A poorly insulated home can lose over 50% of its heat through the roof and walls
- You could knock up to 30% off your annual gas bill by upgrading to an A-rated boiler

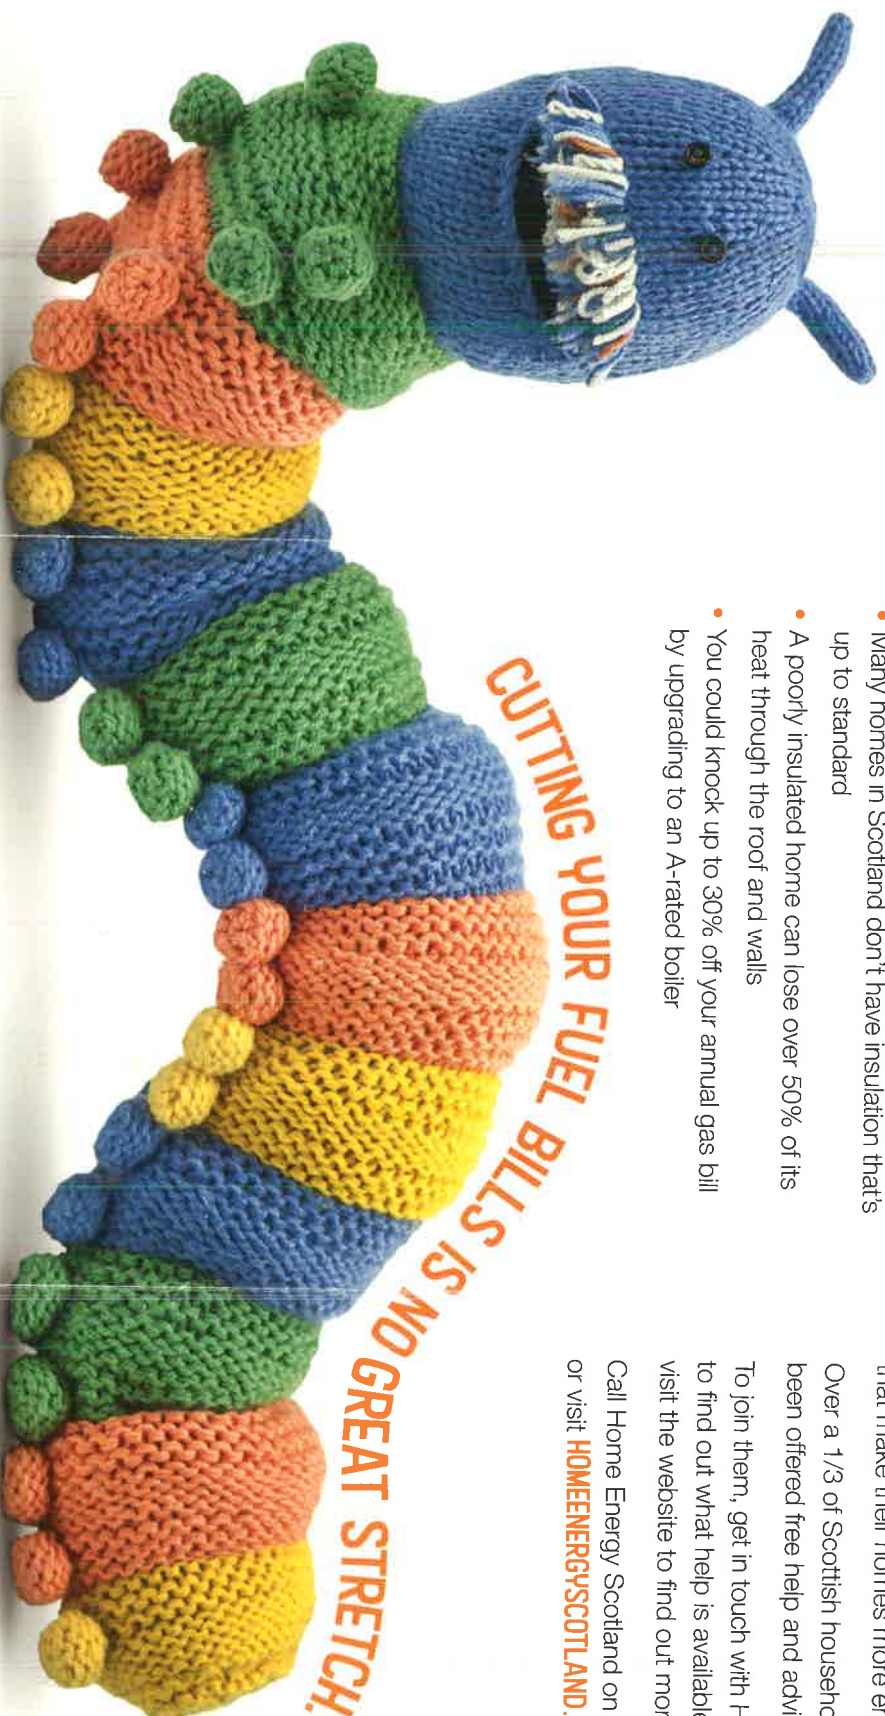

GET A WRIGGLE ON.

Thousands of homes across Scotland are eligible to have things like insulation, a new heating system or a new boiler installed for free. And the Scottish Government is also offering interest free loans to homeowners to help pay for improvements that make their homes more energy efficient.

Over a 1/3 of Scottish households have already been offered free help and advice.

To join them, get in touch with Home Energy Scotland to find out what help is available to you. Just call or visit the website to find out more today.
