

Form A4: application for cremation of pregnancy loss by a health authority or body – shared or individual cremation

Cremation number:	<input type="text"/>	Crematorium/cremation authority:	<input type="text"/>
Time of cremation:	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
Date of cremation:	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>

This form is used to apply for individual cremation of a pregnancy loss OR shared cremation of more than one pregnancy loss, where the loss occurred on or before the end of the 24th week gestation and the loss was for any reason (i.e. termination or miscarriage). This is a requirement of the Cremation (Scotland) Regulations 2019, made under section 48 of the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016. This application must be signed by the person authorised to make the application for cremation. Each pregnancy loss must be identified by the hospital or clinic ID number.

The application is made to the cremation authority which is to carry out the cremation. The cremation authority will need to examine the form to make sure that it contains all of the necessary information. Missing information or information that is not accurate may result in the cremation being delayed or refused.

If you are unsure about any of the information that is required, or are not sure what any part of the form means, you should speak to staff at the crematorium where the cremation is to take place.

Individual cremation

When a pregnancy loss is to be cremated individually, no other pregnancy loss(es) are to be included on this form.

Are ashes to be returned to the next of kin:    Yes        No   

If yes – provide contact details of who will collect the ashes (individual or funeral director)

Personal details of individuals contained in this form are not to be used for any other purpose.

The information provided on this form is a legal requirement under the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016 and will be processed in line with Data Protection legislation. The data will be held by the cremation authority that is carrying out the cremation. It will be held securely, in confidence and processed solely for the purpose of carrying out the cremation and the handling of ashes. It will not be shared with any third party. You have the right to know what data is held about you and you can, by contacting the cremation authority in writing, receive a copy of that data. The cremation authority is obliged to include in their privacy notice how the information will be held, for how long and how you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office.
